Project management truisms

1. Everyone asks for a strong project manager - when they get one, they don’t want one.
2. What is not on paper has not been said.
3. The more you plan the luckier you get.
4. At the heart of every large project is a small project trying to get out.
5. Nothing is impossible for the person who doesn’t have to do it.